

YOUTH LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

Texans Standing Tall

Texans Standing Tall's (TST) Youth Leadership Council (YLC) is composed of high school and college students from across Texas that are passionate about reducing underage alcohol and other drug use.

YLC members are:

- Leaders
- Self-motivated
- Ready to learn
- Passionate about making a difference
- Willing and able to commit time and energy to the YLC
- Dedicated to being free of alcohol, tobacco, and other drugs
- Between ages 16 and 20

YLC members will:

- Attend 2016 Texans Standing Tall Statewide Summit
- Participate in YLC meetings (by phone or online)
- Receive training in community engagement skills, prevention strategies, and other skills
- Provide a youth voice in Texans Standing Tall Statewide Coalition
- Give youth input on Texans Standing Tall's efforts to make alcohol, tobacco, and other drugs irrelevant in the lives of youth
- Serve through September 2016 to October 2017 and have the opportunity to continue service beyond September

YLC application checklist:

- Online Application and Membership Agreement (includes Parental Consent for high school students)
- Choose adult sponsor (required for high school students only)
